FILING A PETITION FOR A HOME STATUS OFFENSE IN OAKLAND COUNTY

The family division of the circuit court has jurisdiction in proceedings against juveniles under 17 if the juvenile runs away from home (truancy) or repeatedly disobeys the reasonable and lawful commands of his or her parents or guardians (incorrigibility). Furthermore, the court must find that the family has exhausted all non-court options, such as counseling and other living arrangements, before it may accept a parent's request for court intervention.

Information for Completing Your Petition

- 1. You must complete the petition completely and by yourself. Court employees may not provide legal advice.
- 2. Your allegations about your child's behavior must be current. The alleged behaviors must have occurred within the last three months.
- 3. You must present a statement from a counseling agency that details your efforts to use community resources to solve your child's truancy or incorrigibility issues. This statement is required even if your child refuses to attend counseling with you. Oakland County Youth Assistance may be used to satisfy the counseling requirement for a nominal fee. The Youth Assistance general telephone number is (248) 858-0051.
- 4. If the court accepts your petition, it may be several weeks until a hearing is held. Your son or daughter will be at home with you during this time.
- 5. If the court finds your child is truant or incorrigible and court-accessed services are necessary, the court will enter orders to rectify the situation. The court orders will be binding on you as well as your child and may include probation and/or family counseling.
- 6. You must include your child's descriptive information on the next page of this packet. Without descriptive information, the court cannot issue an order for your child's apprehension if your child has run away from home.
- 7. You will be responsible for the costs of the court-ordered services, including;
 - a. Costs of a diversionary program, if utilized,
 - b. Costs of a consent calendar probation program, if utilized,
 - c. Costs of formal calendar programs, if utilized, including:
 - i. court-appointed attorney fees for your child (an attorney must be appointed if your case goes to formal court).
 - ii. monthly costs for probation department services,
 - iii. per-day costs for your child's out-of-home or day treatment placement, if utilized.
- 8. Mail or deliver the enclosed documents, when completed, with the required attachments to:

Juvenile Intake Department Ground Floor, East Wing Courthouse Building 1200 N. Telegraph Road Pontiac, MI 48341
